

René Martinez has served on the board of the New Hampshire Dance Alliance since 2016 and has been a dance educator since 2000. Currently, Martinez lives in Manchester, NH and teaches at an urban public middle school, Guilmette Middle School, in Lawrence, MA. She has served at the Guilmette as the Integrated Arts Curricular Coach since 2016. Most of her experience has been in designing and implementing curriculum as the Director of Dance at New Hampton School (a secondary boarding school in NH) where she taught dance for eight years. Additionally, Martinez has taught at various institutions such as Granite State Arts Academy Public Charter (NH), Plymouth State University (NH), Winnepesaukee Playhouse summer camps (NH), Perkiomen School (PA), French Woods Festival of the Performing Arts (NY), Muhlenberg College Dance Center for Children and Teens (PA), and at several private dance studios. Martinez has also spent seven summers touring the U.S. with Dance Olympus/Dance America as VIP Coordinator. Martinez has her B.A. in Dance and Business Administration from Muhlenberg College and M.Ed. in Integrated Arts with a focus in Dance from Plymouth State University.